

WELCOME BACK!

We are returning to worship in the church building, with our first Sunday morning service planned for our Harvest service on Sunday 27th September at 11:00 am, unless there are any last minute changes in restrictions on gathering for worship.

Distancing measures mean we are restricted to 40 people, which includes the minister and the office bearers on duty. If you are coming to worship, please use our telephone booking service, which will be open every week from 1pm on the previous Sunday until 5pm on the Thursday.

In the service itself, there will be no singing and those attending are required to wear face coverings. We will also be making sure that people come in and out in a way that minimises the possibility for contact and with the seats set out to maintain 2m physical distancing. For the time being the balcony is out of use.

This will feel a bit surreal in the early stages but we are determined to make sharing together in worship a worthwhile and fulfilling experience.

How to book

Operating on a first come, first served basis, bookings will be open every week from 1pm on the previous Sunday until 5pm on the Thursday and you can book by calling or texting our dedicated number 07736 434 817. Please indicate your name, contact phone number and the number you would like to book from your household—adults and children.

If you hear nothing back, please assume that you have a place booked as we will only contact you if a place is not available. If we contact you to advise that a place is not available, we will offer you a place for the following Sunday.

Information about your attendance will be held for a period of 21 days and then destroyed.
